Builders Exchange Directory

The Builders & Contractors Exchanges in the USA are paid membership organizations, they provide bid documents for commercial projects that are out for bids in our local area.

Membership costs are range annually from $100 to $1,000 depending on your city size (how many projects bidding).

Some of the organizations

- Make you come into their office and physically view the plans.
- Let you view a job calendar for free (you can see a bidding job name)
